Constantinople, le 19 Juillet 1871.

N. B.—Il est expressément entendu, 1° que le tonnage, d'après le tarif, c'est ce qu'on est convenu d'appeler tonnage commercial; 2° qu'un tonneau (tonneau anglais) est l'équivalent de 792 ocques ou 40 kilos de Turquie; 3° que sur le tonnage des bateaux à vapeur, (ceux des vapeurs dont le tonnage commercial n'est par marqué d'office) il faut déduire 40 0/0 pour la machine, les soutes à charbon etc., 4° enfin, il est convenu que, le système métrique des poids et mesures devant prochainement être mis en vigueur dans l'empire, la perception de la taxe sanitaire sera réglée sur ce système.

TABLE DE PERCEPTION

sur la base des trois catégories du tarif.

TABLE DE CONVERSION

Du tonnage étranger en tonnage ottoman.

Règlement applicable à la perception des droits sanitaires.

ART. 1.

Les droits sanitaires, dans l'Empire ottoman, sont basés sur le tonnage des navires (art. 2 du tarif). Le tonneau ottoman (égal au tonneau anglais) pèse 792 ocques. Une table de conversion, annexée au tarif, indique le rapport entre le tonneau ottoman et les tonneaux des différents pays étrangers dont la mesure est variable. La taxe sanitaire étant payable sur le pied du tonneau ottoman, les agents sanitaires prendront pour règle de la perception des droits, la table de conversion sus-indiquée. Une seconde table, également annexée au tarif, indique le chiffre de la taxe à prélever depuis un tonneau jusqu'à 500, et depuis 501 jusqu'à 1000 et au-dessus.

ART. 2.

Le tonnage des navires étrangers sera constaté par l'exhibition de l'acte de leur nationalité respective qui en donne le chiffre. Quant aux navires ottomans, dans le cas de doute, il sera vérifié avec le concours des autorités du Liman.

ART. 3.

Tous les navires, quelle qu'en soit la nationalité, payeront la taxe sanitaire à leur arrivée dans le premier port ottoman, s'il viennent de l'étranger. Il en est de même des navires qui naviguent d'un port ottoman à un autre port ottoman. Mais les navires à destination de Constantinople, quelle qu'en soit la provenance, et ceux qui traversent les détroits pour se rendre dans la mer Noire, et vice-versa pour aller dans la Méditerranée, payeront la taxe à Constantinople, à l'Office de Galata s'ils viennent de la Méditerranée, à celui de Kavac d'Asie ou de Buyukdéré s'ils viennent de la mer Noire.

ART. 4.

La taxe une fois payée, dans le port de premier arrivée ou à Constantinople, selon les cas, n'est plus exigible pendant le cours du même voyage jusqu'à l'arrivée à destination du navire (art. 3 du tarif).

Le cours du voyage est fixé par la patente de santé qui constate le point de départ du navire et indique le port de sa destination.

En conséquence, la patente de santé ne sera pas changée dans le cours d'un voyage. Elle sera seulement visée dans chaque port ottoman de relâche. La nouvelle patente est livrée lorsqu'un navire a atteint sa destination et qu'il en repart pour faire un autre voyage.

ART. 5.

Les capitaines des navires ayant payé la taxe sanitaire, soit dans le premier port d'arrivée, soit à Constantinople, recevront un reçu (teskéré) de l'agent qui l'aura perçue. Le reçu porte un talon que les capitaines devront détacher à leur arrivée dans le premier port ottoman subséquent qu'ils peuvent aborder après avoir payé la taxe réglementaire. Ils le remettront à l'agent sanitaire du lieu, en lui présentant en même temps, sans le lui livrer, le reçu ou teskéré de la perception.

ART. 6.

Les capitaines qui ne seront pas possesseurs du dit teskéré (à moins qu'ils ne puissent prouver, soit par la visa de la patente, soit par d'autres moyens valables, d'avoir payé la taxe réglementaire) devront en verser le montant à l'agent sanitaire du lieu. Dans ce cas, il en sera dressé procès-verbal et envoyé à Constantinople.

Règle générale, la libre pratique ne sera accordée à aucun navire sujet à la taxe (en parfaite règle d'ailleurs sous le rapport sanitaire) qu'après l'acquittement des droits fixés par le tarif.

ART. 7.

Au départ des navires qui auront payé la taxe, les agents sanitaires en feront mention dans le visa de la patente de santé en y indiquant la somme perçue en toutes lettres.

ART 8.

Les capitaines qui refuseraient d'acquitter la taxe réglementaire et qui partiraient en contravention de l'article 2 du tarif, seront légalement poursuivis, et l'agent sanitaire leur refusera, à son tour, le visa de départ. Dans ce cas, les contrevenants seront passibles de l'amende réglementaire de 2 à 12 livres medjidié qu'il devront payer conjointement avec le montant de la taxe dans le port ottoman subséquent, à défaut de quoi ils seront retenus en quarantaine à leurs frais et risques.

ART. 9.

Les navires ottomans de cabotage seront munis d'une patente, ou livret, valable pour six mois à un an. Elle sera visée dans tous les ports où ils abordent. Le chiffre du tonnage y sera marqué et servira de règle pour la perception de la taxe.

ART. 10.

Les capitaines et patrons des navires ou bateaux faisant des voyages entre une échelle et une autre où il n'y a point d'agent sanitaire, dès qu'ils seront arrivés dans un port où se trouve un agent, sont tenus de déclarer à ce dernier le nombre de voyages qu'il auront faits et de payer les droits pour chaque voyage. Il est entendu qu'il ne s'agit pas ici de relâches accidentelles, mais de cours complets de voyage, ainsi qu'il est dit dans l'article 4 du présent règlement.

ART. 11.

Un registre, conformé au modèle ci-annexé, sera tenu par les agents sanitaires. Ils y inscriront la date de l'arrivée du navire, son nom, le nom du capitaine, le pavillon, le tonnage, la provenance, la destination, le genre de cargaison, les droits payés, la nature et la date de la patente, les numéros de teskéré et de renvoi. Ce registre, formant l'état mensuel du mouvement maritime du port, entrée et sortie, sera transmis à la fin de chaque mois, au plus tard dans les 15 jours suivants, à l'Administration supérieure de Constantinople.

ART. 12.

Les agents dits proposés sanitaires qui occupent des postes subalternes dans une circonscription médicale, enverront l'état mensuel sus-mentionné à la fin de chaque mois à l'Office de santé à médecin dont ils relèvent. Comme la plupart de ces préposés ne connaissent que la langue turque, leurs états seront faits en cette langue. Les kiatibs des Offices en tireront copie pour être gardée dans les archives de la circonscription, et l'original sera envoyé à l'Administration à Constantinople. Les kiatibs enverront en même temps à l'Administration en langue turque, l'état mensuel du port où ils résident. Cependant là où il y a un directeur, cet envoi sera fait, comme de raison, par ce fonctionnaire.

Ce même état mensuel, en y comprenant le relevé des postes secondaires traduit du ture, sera expédié à l'Administration par le médecin sanitaire du chef-lieu de la circonscription. Les médecins en garderont le registre original dans leurs archives à la disposition de l'Administration supérieure de Constantinople.

ART 13.

Dans les postes où il existe un directeur sanitaire, celui-ci devra apposer son propre sceau, ainsi que le sceau de service, sur les états mensuels à transmettre à l'Administration, et le médecin de l'Office y mettra, comme toujours, sa signature. La responsabilité de l'exactitude des états mensuels leur revient également à l'un comme à l'autre.

ART 14.

Les agents subalternes, ou préposés, enverront à l'Office principal de la circonscription, à la fin de chaque mois, conjointement avec les états mensuels, les souches des reçus (teskérés) qu'ils auront été dans le cas de livrer aux capitaines et patrons, contre la perception des droits. Elles seront gardées dans les archives des Offices principaux à la disposition de l'Administration.

Les directeurs et les médecins sont responsables de la conservation de ces documents, ainsi que de tout autre document concernant la comptabilité et, en général, le service qu'il dirigent.

ART. 15.

Les kiatibs en seront tout aussi responsables en ce qui les concerne, mais plus spécialement encore ceux attachés aux Offices où il n'y a pas de directeur. Dans ce cas, ils remplacent ce dernier, encaissent l'argent et le gardent, sous la direction et la surveillance du médecin. La caisse, à deux serrures différentes, est fermée à double clé dont l'une est entre les mains du directeur ou du kiatib, l'autre du médecin.

ART. 16.

Les fonds provenant de la perception des droits, devant être administrés directement par le Conseil supérieur de Santé, les encaissements doivent être dirigés sur Constantinople. Chaque Office du littoral réunira les fonds de sa circonscription et en transmettra le montant, avec les documents mensuels, à l'Administration supérieure de la Capitale. Ce détail très-important au point de vue de la rentrée des fonds dans la caisse générale, pourra d'ailleurs recevoir telle forme dont l'expérience aura démontré l'utilité pratique.

ART. 17.

En conséquence, il ne sera permis de puiser, à quelque titre que ce soit, même pour des besoins les plus urgents, à la caisse des fonds de l'Office, sans une autorisation spéciale de l'Administration. Les préposés enverront à la fin du mois à l'Office dont ils relèvent le montant de la recette. A leur tour, les Offices feront parvenir mensuellement à l'Administration les sommes provenant du préèvement des droits de toute la circonscription.

ART. 18.

Les appointements des employés et les frais de l'Office seront payés par la caisse générale tous les mois. L'Administration trouvera le moyen le plus pratique pour faire cette opération de la manière la plus expéditive et la plus sûre.

ART. 19.

La plus stricte responsabilité pèse sur les employés supérieurs, directeurs, médecins, kiatibs et préposés, pour tout ce qui concerne la comptabilité du service qui leur est confiée respectivement.

Ils auront soin de ne pas traiter dans leur rapports mensuels ayant trait à la comptabilité aucun autre sujet étranger à cette question.

No. 797 of 1872.—The Government of India having been in communication with the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State in regard to the measures to be adopted towards reducing the number of unemployed officers of the armies of the three Presidencies, the Governor General in Council is pleased to publish, for general information, the following orders containing the final decision of Her Majesty's Government.

2. Her Majesty's Government have decided not to offer any additional inducements for the retirement of unemployed officers, and that all officers of unimpeachable character and sound health, whose rank renders it difficult and, indeed, almost impossible, to find suitable staff employment for them in the present state of the service, shall nevertheless continue in the service, and at the disposal of Government under the existing regulations, so long as they retain their present fitness for active employment, and are prepared to discharge whatever duty the Government may think proper to call upon them to perform. Such of these officers as have attained, or may attain, the substantive rank of Lieutenant Colonel, should they still continue unemployed, will have the option, as a temporary arrangement, of residing out of India upon British pay until their services are required, with the understanding that the time passed under these circumstances will count towards retiring pension as well as towards the Colonel's allowance, but they must be prepared to return to India for any active duty to which they may be called.

3. Unemployed officers who are ineligible for public employment, by reason either of clear misconduct or proved physical or mental inefficiency, or who have been removed from their appointment for inefficiency, or who have by distinct or undeniable misconduct rendered themselves ineligible for regimental employment, will be called upon to send in their application to retire upon such pension as they may be entitled to under the regulations, and, if they should fail to do so within three months from the date of their being so called upon, they will be removed to the pension list. Her Majesty's Government do not object to special consideration being shown in the grant of the next higher rate of pension to those officers who have, in the opinion of the Governor General in Council, deserved well of the State by reason of the length and character of their previous services.

4. The Governor General in Council is also authorized to grant to such officers as are not yet entitled to full-pay pensions either the half-pay pension of their rank, or such special annuities, short of the pension of a Captain, as may be appropriate in each case.

5. Early communications will be addressed to all unemployed officers with a view to carrying the above orders into effect.

6. Moreover, in order to remove one of the causes through which officers come on the unemployed list, Her Majesty's Government have directed the following change to be made in the present Furlough Regulations as far as they apply to Staff Corps officers:

"All leave of absence granted by competent authority will henceforward involve retention of appointment. No officer will be allowed, on the plea of private affairs, to extend his leave, upon whatever grounds such leave may have been originally granted, beyond two years, except upon satisfactory evidence of very urgent necessity.

* "In the event of an officer not being able to return to his duty after an absence of three years, it will rest with the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State for India in Council to order him to appear before a Medical Board with a view to placing him on the retired list if entitled to pension, or on the half-pay list.

"Should the circumstances of the case warrant a further extension of leave, it can only be granted without pay."

Die Auslieferung findet auch wegen Theilnahme an einer der vorbezeichneten strafbaren Handlungen statt, sofern diese nach der Gesetzgebung beider vertragenden Theile mit Strafe bedroht ist.

ARTIKEL III.

Kein Deutscher wird von Seiten der Regierungen des Deutschen Reichs an die Regierung des Vereinigten Königreichs und von Seiten dieser kein englischer Unterthan an eine Regierung des Deutschen Reichs ausgeliefert werden.

ARTIKEL IV.

Die Auslieferung soll nicht stattfinden, wenn die von einer Regierung des Deutschen Reichs verfolgte Person im Vereinigten Königreich, oder die Seitens der Regierung des Vereinigten Königreichs verfolgte Person in einem der Staaten des Deutschen Reichs wegen derselben strafbaren Handlung, wegen deren die Auslieferung beantragt wird, in Untersuchung gewesen und ausser Verfolgung gesetzt worden, oder sich noch in Untersuchung befindet, oder bereits bestraft worden ist.

Wenn die von einer Regierung des Deutschen Reichs verfolgte Person im Vereinigten Königreich, oder wenn die Seitens der Regierung des Vereinigten Königreichs verfolgte Person in einem der Staaten des Deutschen Reichs wegen einer anderen strafbaren Handlung in Untersuchung ist, so soll ihre Auslieferung bis zur Beendigung dieser Untersuchung und vollendeter Vollstreckung der etwa gegen sie erkannten Strafe aufgeschoben werden.

ARTICLE V.

The extradition shall not take place if, subsequently to the commission of the crime, or the institution of the penal prosecution, or the conviction thereon, exemption from prosecution or punishment has been acquired by lapse of time, according to the laws of the State applied to.

ARTICLE VI.

A fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered if the offence in respect of which his surrender is demanded is one of a political character, or if he prove that the requisition for his surrender has in fact been made with a view to try or punish him for an offence of a political character.

ARTICLE VII.

A person surrendered can in no case be kept in prison, or be brought to trial in the State to which the surrender has been made, for any other crime or on account of any other matters than those for which the extradition shall have taken place.

This stipulation does not apply to crimes committed after the extradition.

ARTICLE VIII.

The requisition for extradition shall be made through the Diplomatic Agents of the High Contracting Parties, respectively.

The requisition for the extradition of an accused person must be accompanied by a warrant of arrest issued by the competent authority of the State requiring the extradition, and by such evidence as, according to the laws of the place where the accused is found, would justify his arrest if the crime had been committed there.

If the requisition relates to a person already convicted, it must be accompanied by the sentence of condemnation passed against the convicted person by the competent Court of the State that makes the requisition for extradition.

A requisition for extradition cannot be founded on sentences passed in contumaciam.

ARTICLE IX.

If the requisition for extradition be in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the competent authorities of the State applied to shall proceed to the arrest of the fugitive.

ARTIKEL V.

Die Auslieferung soll nicht stattfinden, wenn seit der begangenen strafbaren Handlung, oder der Einleitung, der strafgerichtlichen Verfolgung, oder der erfolgten Verurtheilung nach den Gesetzen des ersuchten Staats Verjährung der strafgerichtlichen Verfolgung oder der erkannten Strafe eingetreten ist.

ARTIKEL VI.

Ein flüchtiger Verbrecher soll nicht ausgeliefert werden, wenn die strafbare Handlung, wegen deren seine Auslieferung verlangt wird, einen politischen Charakter an sich trägt, oder wenn er beweisen kann, dass der Antrag auf seine Auslieferung in Wirklichkeit mit der Absicht gestellt worden ist, ihn wegen eines Verbrechens oder Vergehens politischer Natur zu verfolgen oder zu bestrafen.

ARTIKEL VII.

Die ausgelieferte Person darf in dem Staate, an welchen die Auslieferung erfolgt ist, keinesfalls wegen einer anderen strafbaren Handlung oder auf Grund anderer Thatfachen, als derjenigen, wegen deren die Auslieferung erfolgt ist, in Haft gehalten oder zur Untersuchung gezogen werden.

Auf strafbare Handlungen, welche nach erfolgter Auslieferung verübt sind, findet diese Bestimmung keine Anwendung.

ARTIKEL VIII.

Die Anträge auf Auslieferung sollen durch die diplomatischen Agenten der hohen vertragenden Theile gestellt werden.

Mit dem Antrage auf Auslieferung eines Beschuldigten müssen ein Haftbefehl, welcher von der zuständigen Behörde des die Auslieferung begehrenden Staates erlassen ist, und solche Beweise beigebracht werden, welche nach den Gesetzen des Ortes, wo der Beschuldigte aufgefunden wird, dessen Verhaftung rechtfertigen würden, wenn die strafbare Handlung dort begangen wäre.

Betrifft der Antrag eine bereits verurtheilte Person, so muss das Straf-Urtheil beigebracht werden, welches von dem zuständigen Gericht des die Auslieferung begehrenden Staates gegen den Verurtheilten erlassen ist.

Auf Straf-Urtheile, welche von Ungehorsams wegen (in contumaciam) erlassen sind, kann der Auslieferungs-Antrag nicht gegründet werden.

ARTIKEL IX.

Wenn das Auslieferungsgesuch nach den vorstehenden Bestimmungen begründet ist, so sollen die zuständigen Behörden des ersuchten Staates zur Festnahme des Flüchtlings schreiten.

The prisoner is then to be brought before a competent Magistrate, who is to examine him and to conduct the preliminary investigation of the case, just as if the apprehension had taken place for a crime committed in the same country.

ARTICLE X.

The extradition shall not take place before the expiration of fifteen days from the apprehension, and then only if the evidence be found sufficient, according to the laws of the State applied to, either to justify the committal of the prisoner for trial, in case the crime had been committed in the territory of the said State, or to prove that the prisoner is the identical person convicted by the Courts of the State which makes the requisition.

ARTICLE XI.

In the examinations which they have to make in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the authorities of the State applied to shall admit as entirely valid evidence the sworn depositions or statements of witnesses taken in the other State, or copies thereof, and likewise the warrants and sentences issued therein, provided such documents are signed or certified by a Judge, Magistrate, or Officer of such State, and are authenticated by the oath of some witness, or by being sealed with the official seal of the Minister of Justice, or some other Minister of State.

ARTICLE XII.

If sufficient evidence for the extradition be not produced within two months from the date of the apprehension of the fugitive, he shall be set at liberty.

ARTICLE XIII.

All articles seized, which were in the possession of the person to be surrendered at the time of his apprehension, shall, if the competent authority of the State applied to for the extradition has ordered the delivery thereof, be given up when the extradition takes place; and the said delivery shall extend not merely to the stolen articles, but to everything that may serve as a proof of the crime.

ARTICLE XIV.

The High Contracting Parties renounce any claim for the reimbursement of the expenses incurred by them in the arrest and maintenance of the person to be surrendered, and his conveyance till placed on board ship; they reciprocally agree to bear such expenses themselves.

Der Ergriffene wird sodann vor den dazu gesetzlich berufenen richterlichen Beamten gebracht, welcher ihn ebenso zu verhören und den Straffall vorläufig zu untersuchen hat, als wenn die Ergreifung wegen einer im Inlande begangenen strafbaren Handlung erfolgt wäre.

ARTIKEL X.

Die Auslieferung erfolgt nicht vor Ablauf von fünfzehn Tagen seit der Ergreifung und nur dann, wenn die Beweise für genügend befunden worden sind, um nach den Gesetzen des ersuchten Staats entweder die Verweisung des Ergriffenen zur Hauptuntersuchung zu rechtfertigen, falls die strafbare Handlung im Gebiet dieses Staats begangen wäre, oder darzuthun, dass der Ergriffene mit der von den Gerichten des ersuchenden Staats verurtheilten Person identisch ist.

ARTIKEL XI.

Die Behörden des ersuchten Staats haben bei der Prüfung, welche ihnen nach den vorstehenden Bestimmungen obliegt, den beeidigten Zeugen-Aussagen, welche in dem anderen Staate zu Protokoll genommen sind, imgleichen den Abschriften solcher Original-Zeugen-Aussagen, und ebenso den Haftbefehlen und Straf-Urtheilen volle Beweiskraft beizulegen, vorausgesetzt, dass diese Schriftstücke durch einen Richter, eine obrigkeitliche Person oder einen anderen Beamten dieses Staates unterzeichnet oder bescheinigt und durch einen beeidigten Zeugen oder durch Beidrückung des Amtssiegels des Justiz—oder eines anderen Staatsministers beglaubigt sind.

ARTIKEL XII.

Wenn die zur Auslieferung genügenden Beweise nicht binnen zwei Monaten von dem Tage der Ergreifung des Flüchtigen an beigebracht werden, so ist der Ergriffene auf freien Fuss zu setzen.

ARTIKEL XIII.

Alle in Beschlag genommenen Gegenstände, welche sich zur Zeit der Ergreifung im Besitze des Auszuliefernden befinden, sollen, wenn die zuständige Behörde des um die Auslieferung ersuchten Staats die Ausantwortung derselben angeordnet hat, bei Vollziehung der Auslieferung mit übergeben werden, und es soll sich diese Ueberlieferung nicht blos auf die entfremdeten Gegenstände, sondern auf Alles erstrecken, was zum Beweise der strafbaren Handlung dienen kann.

ARTIKEL XIV.

Die hohen vertragenden Theile verzichten darauf, die Erstattung derjenigen Kosten, welche ihnen aus der Festnahme und dem Unterhalt des Auszuliefernden und seinem Transport bis zur Einschiffung erwachsen, in Anspruch zu nehmen, willigen vielmehr gegenseitig darin diese Kosten selbst zu tragen.

ARTICLE XV.

The stipulations of the present Treaty shall be applicable to the Colonies and foreign possessions of Her Britannic Majesty.

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal who has taken refuge in any of such Colonies or foreign possessions shall be made to the Governor or Chief Authority of such Colony or possession by the Chief Consular Officer of the German Empire in such Colony or possession.

Such requisitions may be disposed of, subject always, as nearly as may be, to the provisions of this Treaty, by the said Governor or Chief Authority, who, however, shall be at liberty either to grant the surrender, or to refer the matter to his Government.

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal from any Colony or foreign possession of Britannic Majesty shall be governed by the rules laid down in the preceding Articles of the present Treaty.

ARTICLE XVI.

The present Treaty shall come into force ten days after its publication in conformity with the forms prescribed by the laws of the High Contracting Parties. It may be terminated by either of the High Contracting Parties, but shall remain in force for six months after notice has been given for its termination.

The Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at London in four weeks, or sooner if possible.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Letter from the Chief Commissioner of British Burmah, No. 263—62, dated 9th October 1871.

RESOLUTION.—The Chief Commissioner of British Burmah proposes that an Act be passed to enable him to prohibit inoculation in the principal towns of the Province, whenever he is satisfied that there exist proper and sufficient arrangements for the vaccination of the people.

2. As there seems reason to fear that the principles are being lost sight of by which, after much discussion and consideration, the Government of India has for several years past been guided in regard to the prohibition of inoculation, and as the Governor General in Council believes the matter to be one of great importance, His Excellency in Council thinks that this opportunity may usefully be taken for re-affirming the conclusions at which the Government has arrived.

3. Inoculation is commonly practised in many parts of India, and is confidently believed by the people to possess the highest value in affording protection against small-pox. It would be difficult to name a subject on which there has been greater difference of opinion in India than the question of the merits and demerits of the practice of inoculation; but, on the whole, the highest authorities have agreed that, while inoculation is in all respects incomparably inferior to vaccination, it is nevertheless better than no prophylactic at all. Accepting this view, the Government of India has been of opinion that the prohibition of inoculation is only justifiable when complete means of protection by vaccination have been supplied to the people.

4. A good illustration of the circumstances under which alone the prohibition of inoculation is, according to the above conclusion, a proper measure to adopt, is the case of the Hill Districts of Kumaon and Gurhwal, and this case affords a full exposition of the views entertained by the Government of India on the subject. About twenty years ago the ravages of small-pox in these districts were frightful; not a year passed in which the Government did not hear of the population of large villages being more than decimated. The practice of inoculation was at the time common among the people, especially among the higher classes. A thoroughly efficient system of vaccination was, however, commenced under Dr. F. Pearson, now Superintendent General of Vaccination, North-Western Provinces. The result of the admirable measures adopted by that officer, and pursued with the greatest judgment and perseverance through a course of years, has been that small-pox has almost ceased to exist in Gurhwal and Kumaon. The prejudices against vaccination have for the most part vanished, and the people are generally not only willing but eager to have recourse to it.

5. It was under these circumstances that in February 1868 Dr. Pearson advised that inoculation should be prohibited by law. He wrote as follows:

“As regards the mooted point, ought inoculation to be prohibited, I am decidedly of opinion that we ought not thus to take away the right of people to protect themselves when we are not in a position to confer the protective power of vaccination. But as in the case of Kumaon and Gurhwal, where there are a sufficiency of vaccinators to thoroughly protect the whole population, then it becomes a duty to suppress inoculation, which undoubtedly is a great source of infection to others, and has many evils attending it, yet is much better than no protection at all, as regards the general welfare of the community. * * * *”

In reply to Dr. Pearson's representation the Government of the North-Western Provinces wrote to him as follows:

“The Lieutenant-Governor fully concurs in the opinion expressed in the 11th paragraph of your report. Now that the vaccination establishments in Kumaon and Gurhwal are sufficient for the requirements of the whole population, inoculation may be very properly prohibited in that Province; but it will be time enough to enforce a similar measure elsewhere when Government has not only provided an efficient substitute, but made it easily available for all, and has shown the people so thoroughly the superiority of vaccination, as to induce them voluntarily to adopt it in preference to inoculation. This has been the result of patient, persevering effort in the Kumaon Division, and there is every reason to hope that similar exertions will eventually produce similar effects elsewhere."

6. The views expressed in the above correspondence were accepted by the Government of India, and Act XXIV. of 1868 was passed to prohibit inoculation in Kumaon and Gurhwal. Although this case has been quoted as the best illustration of the principles by which the Government of India has been guided, the same conclusions had been arrived at three years previously in Bengal when Act IV. of 1865 (Bengal) was passed authorizing the Lieutenant-Governor to prohibit inoculation in certain towns.

7. From correspondence which has come under the notice of the Governor General in Council, he fears that these principles have sometimes been disregarded, and that it can hardly be said that "proper and sufficient arrangements" for vaccination exist in all the places in which inoculation has been prohibited.

8. The Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal in letter No. 4297, dated the 26th December last, asked the opinion of the Government of India in regard to the propriety of prohibiting inoculation in the districts of the Dacca Division, and on the 24th February 1872 the Government of India replied as follows: "It may safely be asserted that the prohibition of inoculation is not justifiable, unless really complete and thoroughly efficient arrangements have been made for the protection of the people by vaccination. It is clear that no such complete protection has been given in the Dacca Division, and the conclusion arrived at by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor is, in the opinion of the Government of India, therefore quite correct."

ORDER.—Ordered, that a copy of the above Resolution be forwarded to the Governments of Bengal, the North-Western Provinces, and the Punjab; the Chief Commissioners of Oudh, British Burmah, the Central Provinces and Coorg, and the Resident at Hyderabad, for information and guidance.

Ordered also, that a copy of the above Resolution be forwarded to the Governments of Madras and Bombay for information.

2. SEPARATE REVENUE.
(STAMPS.)The 15th August 1872.

No. 2025.

From—R. B. CHAPMAN, Esq., Secretary to the Government India.
To—The Chief Secretary to the Government of Bombay.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 3099—21 A R, dated 1st July 1872.

2. It appears that the Government of Bombay has sanctioned the refund of the excess stamp duty paid on letters of administration of an estate, the assets of which were subsequently proved to be less than what they had been estimated to be at the time duty was paid, and it is suggested that as the Court Fees Act 1870 does not authorize the grant of refunds of stamp duty under such circumstances, provision might be made by law to meet similar cases in future.

3. In reply, I am to say that the Governor General in Council confirms the sanction accorded by the Local Government to the refund of the excess duty paid, but that His Excellency in Council does not consider it expedient to legislate on this point at present. The suggestion of the Bombay Government will, however, be borne in mind whenever the law is revised.

4. In the meantime, the local Governments may sanction refunds of stamp duty when the estimate of the assets of an estate is shewn to have exceeded the amount on which the Act says that duty shall be paid, viz., the actual value of the property in respect of which the letters of administration are granted.

Ordered, that a copy of the above be published in the Gazette of India.

SEPARATE REVENUE.

No. 2042.—The object and effect of the notification by the Government of India in the Financial Department, No. 1829, dated 18th March 1872, having been misunderstood, the Governor General in Council is pleased to direct that it be cancelled and to publish instead thereof the following order :

O R D E R .

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section XXVI of the Indian Post Office Act 1866, the Governor General in Council is pleased to declare and direct as follows :

1. If a cover posted at any Indian Post Office and addressed to any place in India contains coin or a currency note or any portion thereof, or manifestly contains postage or other stamps or labels or a cheque, hundi, bank note, bank post bill, bill of exchange or the like, the registration thereof under Section XXV of the said Act shall be compulsory.
2. A double registration fee shall be levied on the delivery of any cover which ought under this order to have been registered at the time of posting, and on which the registration fee shall not have been prepaid as directed in Section XXV of the said Act.

Nothing in this order necessitates the registration of any cover containing postage or other stamps, or labels, a cheque, hundi, bank note and the like, unless the contents thereof are either superscribed upon the cover, or are known or manifest to the officers of the Post Office Department owing to the transparency, insecurity, or insufficiency of the cover, or to any other cause.
